

ATLAS BOARD MEMBER

ADAM MURSZEWski

Adam has been with the Mid West Development Commission since late 2009 and is currently working in a planning, project development and analysis role. Previously, he spent 10 years with the Department of Sport and Recreation's Mid-West and Gascoyne offices, during which time he assisted with the planning and establishment of ATLAS. He has held a position on the Board since its commencement in 2004 and is currently Deputy Chair. Adam spent four years on the Board of Management of Geraldton Buccaneers in the State Basketball League and is on the current Boards of the Mid West Sports Federation and the Geraldton Resource Centre. Adam has an MBA from Deakin University with undergraduate degrees in Business and Recreation studies.