

ATLAS

Chairperson

Mrs. Jenny Rolston

Jenny is a long time Geraldton resident with a working career spanning a range of public and private sector positions in Geraldton, Perth and Port Hedland. Her experience covers education and training within the VET sector as well as various positions within government including TAFE, the Department of Aboriginal Affairs and Local Government as well as substantial experience in the private retail sector. Mrs Rolston is currently employed as CEO of Progressive Training (WA) Pty Ltd, a privately owned registered training organisation.

Jenny has had a long association with ATLAS, joining the Board as Chairperson in 2010. Her formal qualifications include a Graduate Certificate of Management (Professional Practice), a Bachelor of Applied Science (Library Studies), an Advanced Diploma of Management as well as other business management qualifications. Jenny's association with services for people with a disability within the community is directly related to her personal family experience.
